RIGHTS YOU HAVE AND THE WAIVER OF YOUR RIGHTS

Under the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of the State of Alabama, you have a right to remain silent and you may not be compelled to give evidence against yourself. Your attorney cannot disclose any confidential talks he she has had with you. You do not have to answer any questions. If you do answer questions knowing that you have a right to remain silent, you will have waived this right.

You have the right to enter, or stand on if previously entered, a plea of "Not Guilty" or "Not Guilty by Reason of Mental Disease or Defect," or "Not Guilty and Not Guilty by Reason of Mental Disease or Defect" and have a public trial before a duly selected jury. The jury would decide your guilt or innocence based upon the evidence presented before them. If you elect to proceed to trial, you would have the right to be present, you would have the right to have your attemey present to assist you, you would have the right to confront and cross examine your accuser(s) and all the State's witnesses, you would have the right to subport witnesses to testify on your behalf and to have their attendance in court and their testimony required by the court, and you would have the right to take the witness stand and to testify, but only if you chose to do so, as no one can require you to do this. If you elect to testify, you can be cross examined by the State just as any other witness is subject to cross examination. If you elect not to testify, no one but your attorney will be allowed to comment about that fact to the jury. Your attorney is bound to do everything he/she can honorably and reasonably do to see that you obtain a fair and impartial trial.

If you elect to proceed to trial, you come to court presumed to be innocent. This presumption of innocence will follow you throughout the trial until the State produces sufficient evidence to convince the jury (or the court if the trial is non-jury) of your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. You have no burden of proof in this case. If the State fails to meet its burden, you would be found not guilty.

If you are entering a guilty plea to a charge for which you have not yet been indicted, you are waiving indictment by a grand jury and you will be pleading guilty to a charge preferred against you by a District Attorney's Information filed with the court.

If you are not a United States citizen, a guilty plea may subject you to adverse immigration consequences, including deportation (see § U.S.C. § 1227), exclusion from reentry to the United States and amnesty, and that the appropriate consulate may be informed of the plea and conviction.

Pursuant to Section 15-22-27.3, Ala. Code 1975, if you are pleading guilty to a sex offense involving a child as defined in Section 15-20A-4, Ala. Code 1975, which constitutes a Class A or B felony, you will not be eligible for parole.

If you are convicted of a misdememor crime of demestic violence, which has, as an element, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, against your current or former spouse; your child of whom you are a parent or guardian; a person with whom you share a child in common; a spouse, parent, or guardian with whom you are, or have been, cohabiting or to whom you are similarly situated, and you ship or transport in interstate or foreign commerce, or possess in or affecting commerce, any firearm or ammunition, or if you receive any firearm or ammunition which has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce, YOU ARE SUBJECT TO BEING PROSECUTED IN FEDERAL COURT FOR VIOLATING 18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(9).

If you plead guilty, there will be no trial. You will be waiving the rights outlined above, except your rights relating to representation by an autories. The state will have nothing to prove and you will stand guilty on your guilty plea. By entering a plea of guilty, YOU WILL ALSO WAIVE YOUR RIGHT TO APPEAL. unless in appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals or the Supreme Court (1) you have, before entering the plea of guilty, expressly reserved the right to appeal with respect to a particular issue or issues, in which event appellate review shall be limited to a determination of the issue or issues reserved, or (2) you have tirrely filed a motion to withdraw the plea of guilty after pronouncement of sentence on the ground that the withdrawal is necessary to correct a manifest injustice, and the court has denied your motion to withdraw your plea, or the motion has been deemed denied by operation of law.

RIGHTS YOU HAVE AND WAIVER OF YOUR RIGHTS TRIAL.

Under the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution and laws of the State of Alabama, you have a right to remain allent and you may not be compelled to give evidence against yourself. You attorney cannot disclose any confidential talks he'she has had with you. You are not required to answer any querion. Hyou do answer questions knowing that you have a right to remain silent, you will have waived this right. You have the right to enter, and continue to asset, a plear of "Not Guilty" or "Not Guilty by Reason of Mental Disease or Defect," and have a public trial before a duly selected jury. The jury would decide your guilt or innocence based upon the evidence presented before them. If you elect to proceed to trial, you would have the right to be present, you would leve the right to have your attorney present to assist you, you would have the right to confront and cross examine your accuser(s) and all the State's witnesss, you would have the right to subpoens witnesses to testify on your behalf and to have their attendance in coun and their testimony required by the count, and you would have the right to take the witness stand and to testify, but only if you choose to do so, as no one can require you to do this. If you elect to assify, you can be cross examined by the State, just as any other witness is subjected to cross examination. If you decide not to testify, no one but your attorney will be slowed to comment about their fact to the jury. Your atterney is bound to do everything he/she can, honorably and responsibly, for you to obtain a fair and imparial trial. If you elect to proceed to trial, you come to court presumed to be innocent. This presumption of innocence will follow you throughout the trial until the State produces sufficient evidence to convince the jury (or the court if the trial is non-jury) of your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. You have no burden of proof in this case. If the State fells to meet its burden, you would be found not guilty. If you are entering a guilty plea to a charge for which you have not yet been indicated, you are waiving indicateent by a grand jury and you will be pleading guilty to a charge preferred against you by a District Attorney's Information filed with the court If you are not a United States citizen, a guilty plea may subject you to adverse immigration consequences, including deportation (See 8 U.S.C. § 1227), exclusion from reentry to the United States and amnesty, and that the appropriate consulate may be informed of the plea and conviction.

DEPARTURE SENTENCE

(Check if applicable)

Yethere the right to notice seven days prior to trial of any aggrevating factor the state intends to assert in your case and you have the right to a trial by jury as wine existence of that factor. The state bears the burden of proving sufficient evidence to convince the jury (or the count if the triel is non-jury) of the existence of that factor beyond a reasonable coubt. You have the right to assert mitigating factors for presentation to the sentencing trial judge by giving the sentencing judge motice of such factors no less than 7 days prior to sentencing. You been the burden of proving by sufficient evidence to convince the court by a preponterance of the evidence that such factor exists.

WAIVER

If you plaid guilty, (____ and admit the aggrevating factors) there will be no trial. You will be waiving your rights outlined above, except your rights relating to representation by an attorney. The state will have nothing to prove and you will stand guilty on your guilty plea. By entering a plea of guilty, YOU WILL ALSO WAIVE YOUR RIGHT TO APPEAL, unless in appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals or the Supreme Court (1) you have before entering the pl of guilty expressly reserved the right to appeal with respect to a particular issue or issues, in which event appellate review shall be limited to a determination of the formula in the same of the s the issuer issues reserved, (2) you have timely filed a motion to withdraw the plea of guilty after pronouncement of sentence on the ground that the withdrawl is necessary to correct a manifest injustice, and the court has denied your motion to withdraw your plea, or the motion has been deemed denied by oceration of law.

IF YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO APPEAL UNDER ONE OF THE CONDITIONS ABOVE AND YOU ARE DETERMINED BY THE COURT TO BE INDIGENT, COUNSEL WILL BE APPOINTED TO REPRESENT YOU ON APPEAL IF YOU SO DESIRE AND IF THE APPEAL IS FROM A CIRCUIT OURTHIDGMENT OR SENTENCE, A COPY OF THE RECORD AND REPORTER'S TRANSCRIPT WILL BE FROVIDED AT NO COST TO YOU. IF YOU HAVE AN'Y QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR RIGHTS OR THE CONSEQUENCES OF PLEADING GUILTY, PLEASE LET THE COURT KNOW NOWAND FURTHER EXPLANATION WILL BE MADE. The earth having personally addressed the defendant, determines that the defendant has entered the plea voluntarily (.) _____ and has voluntarily admitted to the existence of the following aggravating factors. Dete Judge ATTORNEY'S CERTIFICATE I certify that the above was fully read to the defendant by me; that I explained the penalty or penalties involved with the defendant; that I discussed in detail defendant's rights and the consequences of pleading guilty; and that, in my judgment, the defendant understands the same and that he/she is knowingly. volunarily, and in telligently waiving his/her rights and entering a voluntary and intelligent plea of guilty. I further certify to the court that I have in no way forcesor induced the defendant to plead guilty and to my knowledge no one else his done so. Date Attorney DEFENDANT'S STATEMENT OF WAIVER OF RIGHTS AND PLEA OF GUILTY I certify to the court that my attorney has read and explained the matters set forth above; that my rights have been discussed with me in detail and fully explained; that I understand the charges or charges against me; that I understand my rights, the punishment or punishments provided by law as they may apply to mytast, and I understand the consequences of pleading guilty; that I am not under the influence of any drugs, medicines, or alcoholic beverages; and I have not bem threatened or abused or offered any inducement, reward, or hope of reward to plead guilty other than the terms of the plea agreement which will be restation the record. I further state to the court that I am guilty of the charge to which I am entering a plea of guilty, that I desire to plead guilty, that I made up we wanted to plead guilty and that I knowingly and intelligently, and voluntarily waive my right to trial in this case (__ and I admit the existence of the aggressing factors). I further state that I am satisfied with my attorney's services and his/her handling of my case. Dete Defendant
